

Commissioners:

Please regard this communication as my official request that you dismiss the proposed rule-making without any further action. With frequencies already set aside for the FRS type of radio, and the cost of the necessary equipment for those frequencies being very minimal, I see no need for any action of this type. The potential for interference is great, both to the Amateur Radio Service, and also for the government use that is allowed within this band.

Thank you for your consideration.